SIGNATURES ²¹

LEONARDO

Bombay Sapphire gin, Campari infused coffee beans,
Martini Rosso red Vermouth, orange essence

The Vitruvian Man is da Vinci's study of the human form, which is meant to be perfectly proportionate through the application of geometry and mathematics. Its only meaning is to demonstrate the perfect ratios and proportions found in human anatomy.

MONA LISA

Grey Goose Vodka, Orange Liqueur, Passion Fruit Mix,
Chinola Liqueur, Tomato Water, Lime Juice Simple Syrup & Pink Peppercorn.

In her cryptic smile, we discover the spicy essence of the human condition: a dance between truth and illusion, certainty and doubt, and the eternal quest for understanding.

FASHION OLD FASHIONED

Bourbon, walnut bitters, demerara granulated sugar,
Frangelico liqueur

In Italy, fashion is a celebration of beauty, artistry, and self-expression, a true reflection of the nation's soul. You can breathe fashion and art everywhere. It is a way of life.

BACCO

St Germain, Pinot Grigio, Italicus, grapefruit juice
& orange bitters, prosecco, soda water

A god dedicated to wine, the vine and fertility. A deity of fieldwork and agriculture as well, to whom the Roman peasants entrusted themselves to ask for a fruitful harvest.

BIRTH OF VENUS

Hendrick's gin, St Germain, Blue Curacao, grapefruit juice, lime Juice, simple syrup, aromatic bitters & peach foam

The very delicate figure of Venus, goddess of love and beauty, born from the foam of the sea, who emerges from the water in a large seashell, with seaweed intertwined in her hair.

TIRAMISU MARTINI

Grey Goose, Kahlua, Frangelico, espresso, mascarpone cream
& dark chocolate powder

The golden period of the Renaissance was when coffee was introduced to Europe. Italy was the homeland of that glorious movement, which gave new life to science and the arts, opening the doors of a modern world. The merchants of Venice bore great responsibility for the introduction of coffee to the Old World.
